

Erin is the author of the “Alaska On the Go: Exploring the 49th State with Children” guidebook series, publisher of AKontheGO.com—Alaska’s only family travel resource—and a member of the Family Travel Association’s media membership committee. As a busy mom of a teenage son, Erin truly lives the “on the go” lifestyle. She also writes a regular column for the Alaska Dispatch. A resident of Anchorage, Erin is an expert in Alaska products, services, and destinations for children and families.

Join Youth Adventurist Erin Kirkland

Alaska’s Glacier Country - S.S. Legacy
August 9, 2019

Alaska Fjords & Glaciers - Wilderness Discoverer
July 4, and August 1, 2020

Kick back and relax while an onboard, family-focused guide leads the fun. A special UnCruise Youth Adventurist hosts your experience.

Adventure activities may include:

- Flora/fauna identification, foraging, and forest floor collections
- Scavenger hunts
- Kayaking and paddle board relays
- Costume contests, game shows, and drama nights
- Cooking or baking using traditional recipes and ingredients
- History and culture talks
- Traditional Native song and dance
- Forest ecology games and team activities
- Beach parties
- “Get Up and Go” activities in the morning including KidStretch, cocoa, and games

Craft and art activities may include:

- Personalized totem pole watercolor art
- Sewing, beading, or other Pacific Coast Native craftwork
- Nature collages, jewelry, wall-art
- Photography
- Glacier construction
- Whale-watching haiku

Family Discoveries Savings

Kids ages 8 to 13 save $500 per child

888-862-8881

UnCruise.com